To whom it may concern, ,

I am thrilled to be given this opportunity to be considered an applicant for this Real Estate/Investor internship. I have a strong passion to further my knowledge in this field of work and believe that this hands-on experience will enhance my skills, such as: negotiating, strategy, and assertiveness.

With the fluctuation of the economy and the dependency that this field has on it, I am aware of the amount of skilled workers working in this industry that could set me aside. However, I have applied myself in many different areas in life to educate myself and differentiate myself from others. Since January of 2023, I have placed it upon myself to put a financial investment into raising livestock through Future Farmers of America. Here I have learned how to manage money and conduct research on how to raise a quality pig. To ensure that I have a buyer at Agfest, I have created and written buyer letters to promote myself as an entrepreneur. This experience has taught me to create a persuasive and charismatic manner to promote myself to others. Holding a 3.7 GPA, active in clubs, playing sports, and involved in ASB Leadership at my high school, I am proven to be a well rounded individual in different areas.

My resume will provide further details about such relevant details about the activities I am involved in, and skills. I look forward to hearing from you to discuss further actions of communication.

Sincerely,

Lucia Machado Perez
